St. Patrick's Summer Party with French Theme: What a fantastic night we had! A full house, wonderful catering, music, singing and Ted with his jokes of course! It was really good fun and I hope everyone enjoyed the evening. My very grateful thanks to Rachael for organising, buying and cooking our 'French' supper. The wonderful team of St. P's worked so hard in preparing the hall, decorating, then serving, clearing up, washing up! What would we do without them? Thanks to Martin for introductions and help with the French pronunciations! Also to Maria and Bernadette who helped serve so efficiently. The wonderful musicians who entertained us - Keith Waithe (flute), David and Chris (Accordion and guitar), the singers under the direction of Nell. And Bernadette and Ted for the duet! Background music from Irene as well. Phew! We made a profit and some of that will go to local charities. Thanks to all who attended - we value your support. See you next year for??? Frances and St. P's team

St. Patrick's Film Club: Our next showing is on Monday, 7th July at 2pm. It is a very good film with humour and pathos! Details on notice boards at both Churches. Admission free but donations welcome. Ice cream/tea/coffee available. There is no film in August so the next feature will be on 1st September. Thanks to those who have supported this venture. Frances
