'Flying with Butterflies' by Brigid Byrne, a parishioner of ours. 'I was nearing my sixtieth birthday when my beloved husband died unexpectedly. I could not imagine how I would cope on my own – after years of a happy marriage. I discovered he had been planning to surprise me with a round-the-world trip of a lifetime. Would I be brave enough to set off on my own? I was! I only had my faith, my rucksack and hiking boots. I have written this book in the hope that my story will strike a chord with those who might find themselves on their own - perhaps for the very first time? My book is to encourage others to do what I thought was impossible and fly with butterflies.' Available to buy after Mass this weekend, otherwise please see www.brigidbyrne.com.

SOS: SAVE OUR STUDENT FROM DEPORTATION: Ann is a 16-year-old Sudanese refugee who has been studying at Cardinal Newman Catholic School, becoming an integral part of their community. She and her family now face the threat of being deported, through no fault of their own. We do not want to put Ann in danger or lose a valued member of the community. We don't have a lot of time to act – please sign the petition at change.org (search for "SOS: Save our Student") to keep her and her family safe here.
